

FAMILY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Board commits to collaborate with the Hancock County Educational Services Center, member districts, and Hancock Children and Family First Council, appointing a family and civic engagement committee, whose membership and organization, includes parents, community representatives, health and human service representatives, business representatives and any other representatives identified by the Board.

The family and civic engagement committee must work with local county family and children first councils to recommend qualifications and responsibilities that should be included in the job description for school family and civic engagement coordinators.

The committee develops a five-year family and civic engagement plan and provides annual progress reports on the development and implementation of the plans. The plan and progress reports must be submitted to the county family and children first council.

Finally, the committee must provide recommendations on matters specified by the Board. Meetings of the committee fall under the auspices of the Open Meetings Act (Sunshine Law).
