

HOME EDUCATION/HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION

The Board of Education may provide individual instruction to students who are unable to attend classes due to accident, illness or disability, or other situations approved by the Superintendent.

Annual notification is required for each student who is to be instructed at home. This notification must provide information about the student and assurances of (1) qualifications of persons who will be instructing the student, (2) the educational program including time requirements and a curriculum outline, and (3) a list of instructional materials to be used. An academic assessment report of the previous year's work must be included in each subsequent year that home instruction notification is submitted.

The Superintendent shall review the information submitted within 14 calendar days of receipt and determine if it is in compliance with O.A.C. 3301-34-03. If the Superintendent determines that it is in compliance, he/she shall notify the parents in writing that the child is excused from school attendance for the remainder of the current school year.

If the Superintendent determines that it is not in compliance, he/she shall state in writing the specific respects in which the information is incomplete and provide the parents an option within 14 calendar days to supply additional written information or supply information at a conference with the Superintendent. If the Superintendent has substantial evidence that the minimum educational requirements of O.A.C. 3301-34-03(A) will not be met, he/she shall declare the intent to deny the excuse and so notify the parents within 14 calendar days. This notification must include reasons for the intent to deny, and notice of the parents' right to a due process hearing before the Superintendent. If a hearing is held, the Superintendent will provide a record of the proceedings, including oral testimony and documentary evidence.

Based upon evidence presented at the hearing, the Superintendent may grant or deny an excuse from attendance. If the excuse from attendance is denied, the Superintendent shall notify parents that they have the right to appeal this decision to the Hancock County Juvenile Judge within ten (10) calendar days, and that they may be in violation of Section 3321.03 and 3321.04 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Upon substantial evidence of cessation of home education in accordance with the plans submitted on the parents' notification form or with arrangements for remediation, the Superintendent shall notify the parents of his/her intent to revoke the excuse from school attendance and their right to a due process hearing.

If a hearing is held and the excuse is withdrawn, the Superintendent shall notify the parents in writing to enroll the child in school. The Superintendent will also notify the parents in writing of their right to appeal the Superintendent's decision to the Hancock County Juvenile Judge within ten (10) calendar days.

Remediation

If the annual academic assessment indicates that the child is not demonstrating reasonable proficiency, the Superintendent shall require parents to submit an appropriate plan of remediation within thirty (30) days. During remediation the parents shall submit to the Superintendent a quarterly report which includes (1) a written narrative evaluating the child's progress, (2) an explanation if the child has made less than satisfactory progress in any subject, and (3) an explanation if less than the intended curriculum planned for the quarter was covered. Remediation may be eliminated upon determination by the Superintendent that the child is demonstrating reasonable proficiency; parents will be informed in writing of this decision.

If the child does not demonstrate reasonable progress during remediation, the Superintendent may, subsequent to a due process hearing, revoke the child's excuse from attendance. Parents must be notified in writing to enroll the child in school within thirty (30) calendar days. Parents will be notified in writing that they have the right to appeal the Superintendent's decision to the Hancock Juvenile Court Judge within ten (10) calendar days.
