Northview FABSS: serving Bigelow Hill, Jacobs and Northview

Wilson Vance FABSS: serving Whittier and Wilson Vance

Program Description

FABSS is designed to provide safe and quality care for children grades Kindergarten through 5th. Children have the opportunity to participate in daily activities which promote academic achievement, creativity and social skills. FABSS sites open at 6:30 AM for the before school session. Learning centers, fine and large motor skill games, homework review time, and school breakfast are all offered each morning. Children are then dismissed at the appropriate times to either their classrooms or are transported by Findlay City School busses to their assigned schools. The after school session consists of a homework and academic review time, a nutritious snack, and a variety of planned developmentally appropriate learning experiences. FABSS closes at 6:00 PM. FABSS is open for school delays. FABSS is closed for all school closures.

Before and/or After School Fees

A $25 per family registration fee is due annually, once enrollment paperwork is completed. Tuition payments are due at the end of each and every week for the number of sessions attended. You can pay online through EZPAY or by check at your assigned site. Checks are payable to Findlay City Schools. Session fee costs are per child.

Weekly Number of Sessions Attended:	Cost per session:*
1, 2 or 3	$14.00
4, 5 or 6	$11.00
7 or 8	$ 9.00
9 or 10	$ 7.50

A session is defined as before OR after school care. There are up to 10 sessions a school week. Families are charged for the number of sessions attended per child each week.* Other fees may apply for delays or late pick-up
